GREAT LITTLE BOX COMPANY HAS WON AGAIN!

Great Little Box Company was honored with two awards at the TAPPI Corr-Pak Competition.

RICHMOND, BC - October 28, 2008 - The Great Little Box Company (GLBC) placed first and second in an event at the TAPPI Corr-Pak Competition. The competition is a design/manufacturing contest that is open to all corrugated companies in Canada, United States, Mexico and Europe. It is judged by TAPPI, the leading technical association for worldwide pulp, paper and converting industry.

GLBC placed first in the Structure Product Protection - Industry category with an entry designed for Ledalite called Voice Packaging Insert Design. Great Little Box Company also placed second in the same category with an entry called Nitro Insert which was designed for Gatekeeper.

Established in 1982, Great Little Box Company's primary focus is to be the one-stop shop for packaging products and solutions. Products include the design and manufacture of custom and stock corrugated boxes, folding cartons and rigid boxes, point-of-purchase displays, specialty packaging and fabrication of both foam packaging and pressure sensitive labels. GLBC also distributes a complete line of shipping supply products and moving equipment while providing fulfillment services and vendor managed inventory programs to its customers. GLBC's accolades include Best Company to Work For in BC, Canada's 50 Best Managed Companies, and Canada's Top 100 Employers. As a true one-stop shop, Great Little Box Company is committed to their Vision Statement: Great Service, Great People, Quality Packaging Solutions.
